CapTel—the telephone that shows you captions

- ▶ Dial the person you're calling directly
- ▶ Captions appear on the bright, easy-to-read display
- ▶ Powerful amplification with volume boost (up to 35dB) gives you maximum volume
- ▶ Adjustable tone & volume control for optimum sound clarity
- ▶ Captions provided – free – by New York Relay Captioned Telephone Service
- ▶ Review captions during or after a call (500 lines of memory can be reviewed after hanging up)
- ▶ You can use CapTel with headsets, a neckloop, a cochlear implant patch cord, or other assistive listening devices
- ▶ Easy access to voice mail, phone menu systems, and answering machine messages
- ▶ Optional USB Port lets you view large print captions on your computer monitor

The CapTel phone requires a standard analog telephone line to operate. Damage to the CapTel phone may result if plugged into a digital telephone line unless an analog filter is used. Using CapTel over VOIP (voice over internet protocol) is not recommended.

Special exclusive offer—made possible by Sprint
